

INTERNATIONAL CLARINET ASSOCIATION BY-LAWS

Article I

Name

This organization shall be known as the International Clarinet Association, incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware as a non-profit, non-stock organization.

Article II

Location

The headquarters of the corporation shall be in the United States. The initial registered office of the corporation is Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware, and its registered agent at such address is the Corporation Trust Company. The address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors of the corporation.

Article III

Objectives

The objectives and purposes of this corporation are:

- (a) To foster communications and fellowship of clarinetists on a worldwide basis through the corporation.
- (b) To establish a research library providing all corporation members an extensive bibliography of materials pertaining to the clarinet.
- (c) To support projects which will benefit clarinet performance; providing opportunity for the exchange of ideas, materials and information among members; fostering the composition, publication, recording and distribution of music for the clarinet; encouraging the research and manufacture of a more definitive clarinet; avoiding commercialism in any form while encouraging communication and cooperation among clarinetists and the music industry; encouraging and promoting the performance and teaching of the clarinet literature.
- (d) To publish a quarterly journal, The Clarinet, to be distributed to all members.
- (e) To organize, arrange and sponsor festivals of clarinet music on an annual or more frequent basis in various locations throughout the United States and elsewhere.

Article IV
Powers

Section 1. The corporation shall have the powers necessary and proper to the achievement of the aforementioned purposes for which the corporation is organized.

Section 2. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Section 3. No part of the net earnings of the corporations shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, officers, or private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Section 4. This corporation may hold real estate and own copyrights and property. No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the corporation and no evidence of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by a resolution of the Board of Directors. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 5. The corporation may accept outright any unrestricted gifts, grants, or endowments that may be presented by any person, firm, or corporation; and such gifts, grants, or endowments shall be placed in the general funds of the corporation to be used, as directed by the Board of Directors, for the aims and purposes of the corporation.

Section 6. All checks, drafts, or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation shall be signed by the Treasurer. The President shall have this authority in the event that the Treasurer is unable to attend to his duties. All funds of the corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the corporation in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as selected by the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Dues from the membership will support the activities of the corporation and also provide for subscription to the quarterly journal.

Section 8. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be the period beginning September 1 of each year and ending August 31 of the following year.

Article V
Membership

Section 1. The initial members of this corporation shall be the incorporators of the corporation.

Section 2. Membership in this corporation shall be open to all individuals interested in the clarinet upon payment of annual dues. All members shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of membership in the corporation, including a subscription to the quarterly journal. Members shall have the right to a voice and the right to a vote for the election of officers and for other such matters as are presented for voting.

Section 3. There shall be two types of membership:

(a) Active: the only category of membership with voting privileges.

(b) Associate: a non-voting membership available to libraries, publishers, dealers and others with an active interest in the clarinet music profession.

Dues for the two types of membership shall be determined by the Board of Directors and shall be approved by a majority of those present and voting at a general meeting of members.

Section 4. Application for membership, with dues, shall be sent to the Secretary of the corporation or to such other person as is designated by the Board of Directors to serve as membership coordinator of the corporation.

Section 5. As memberships are received from countries other than the United States, the Board of Directors shall take appropriate action to ensure their representation in the corporation and to foster a truly international organization.

Section 6. A special category of Honorary Memberships may be created for individuals of the unusual distinction from the areas of professional service, teaching, performance, and/or lifetime achievements. Such individuals can be nominated at any time by the corporation's membership or the Board of Directors. They may be elected to honorary status upon approval by the board of directors and upon thereafter receiving a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at a general business meeting of members. Honorary memberships shall not be awarded posthumously except under extraordinary circumstance and with unanimous approval by the Board of Directors.

Article VI
Directors

Section 1. The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors, five in number.

Section 2. The elected officers of the corporation, together with the immediate Past President of the corporation, shall constitute the members of the Board of Directors. They shall hold office for a term of two years and until their successors are duly elected and qualify.

Section 3. The Board of Directors, by resolution duly adopted by a majority of the directors in office, may designate and appoint an Executive Committee consisting of two or more directors to exercise the authority of the Board of Directors between meetings except that such committee may not take any action expressly required by Delaware law to be taken only by the Board of Directors.

Article VII Officers

Section 1. The elected officers of the corporation shall be the President, President-Elect, Secretary and Treasurer. They shall hold office for a term of two years and until their successors are duly elected and qualify, except that the President-Elect shall automatically succeed to the office of President following expiration of the President's two-year term of office. The terms of office of the officers shall begin on the September 1 of even-numbered years.

Section 2. Members of the corporation by way of a mailed ballot shall elect the officers. For this purpose the ballots shall be included in the even-numbered years March issue of The Clarinet for collection by return mail with a postmarked deadline of June 1st. The Chair of the nominating committee shall collect all ballots, tally the ballots, announce the results at the general meeting of members at that year's annual ClarinetFest® and publish the results in the first issue of The Clarinet issued thereafter.

Section 3. The duties of the elected officers are:

(a) The President (and in his absence, the President-Elect) shall preside at all meetings of the corporation, shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation, and shall be a member ex-officio of all special and standing committees except the Nominating Committee.

(b) The President-Elect shall act in the absence of the President and shall accept such other responsibilities and assignments as the President may request.

(c) The Secretary shall be responsible for recording the proceedings of all general meetings of the corporation, for presenting these minutes to the following general meeting, for the correspondence of the corporation, and for the maintenance of a current membership list.

(d) The Treasurer shall be responsible for the financial records of the corporation and for the disbursement of the funds of the corporation except that, in the event the Treasurer is unable to do so, the President may disburse the funds of the corporation.

Section 4. The Board of Directors may designate such persons to serve as Assistant Secretaries and/or Assistant Treasurers of the corporation as may be necessary for the proper functioning of the corporation.

Section 5. Officer Resignation and/or Removal:

(a) At any time, any Officer may resign by delivering to the Board of Directors an oral or written resignation. Officer resignation is effective immediately upon receipt by the Board of Directors.

(b) If an Officer fails to uphold and follow the designated duties of his office, and/or in some other way brings harm to the corporation, they may be removed from office by unanimous vote of the other current Officers.

(c) In the event of Officer resignation or removal, nominations and elections will be held at an emergency meeting of the Board of Directors to fill the office position that has become open. If the President has been removed, the President-Elect shall take over the President's duties until the next Board election. If the Past-President has been removed, a previous Past-President will be elected to serve the remainder of the term. Nominations and elections for an interim appointment will be held for the positions of President-Elect, Treasurer, and Secretary that may become open during the course of a removed Officer's term.

Article VIII
Committees

Section 1. There shall be a Nominating Committee, the Chairperson of which shall be the immediate Past President of the corporation. The Board of Directors may, at its discretion, designate the following additional committees as it, from time to time, deems necessary for the proper functioning of the corporation: Finance, Legal and By-Laws, Library, Membership and Program. Except for the Chairperson of the Nominating Committee, the President, in consultation with the Board of Directors, shall appoint the members of each committee and shall designate one of the members as chairperson. The President shall be an ex-officio member of all committees except the Nominating Committee.

Section 2. The President, in consultation with the Board of Directors, may, from time to time, appoint the members and chairpersons of such special committees as the Board of Directors determines are necessary for the proper functioning of the corporation.

Section 3. The Finance committee shall supervise the fiscal affairs of the corporation and shall make such recommendations with respect thereto to the Board of Directors, as it deems desirable.

Section 4. The Legal and By-Laws Committee shall be responsible for advising the Board of Directors and members with respect to legal issues facing the corporation, for reviewing these By-Laws, and for making such recommendations with respect thereto to the Board of Directors, as it deems desirable.

Section 5. The Library Committee shall be responsible for the maintenance of a library to serve the purposes of the corporation as described in Article III of these By-Laws.

Section 6. The Membership Committee shall be responsible for maintaining contact with members of the corporation and for seeking the enrollment of new members.

Section 7. The Nominating Committee shall be responsible for recommending nominees for officers to the members prior to each general business meeting at which officers are to be elected.

Article IX Meetings

Section 1. There shall be a general meeting, including a business meeting, once each year of all members. The Board of Directors shall determine the time and place of the meeting. The Board of Directors shall submit a general report on the affairs of the corporation at the annual meeting of the corporation.

Section 2. There shall be at least one meeting each year of the Board of Directors held in connection with and at the time of the general business meeting of members. The Board shall meet at such other times as called by the President or at the request of any three members of the Board. The President shall determine the time and place of meetings.

Section 3. Notice of the annual meeting of the members shall be given to each member in writing at least thirty days prior to the meeting. Notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to each director at least two days prior to the meeting. Notice of the annual meeting of members may be given by publication in The Clarinet. Notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors may be given by mail or by telephone or by any means of electronic communication.

Section 4. A quorum at a general meeting of members will constitute all those in attendance. If voting includes a ballot by mail, those who so vote shall be counted as in attendance. A quorum at the Board of Directors meeting shall be a majority of filled seats of the Board. The rules and order of business of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the corporation in all cases where they are applicable and where they are not inconsistent with the Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of the corporation.

Section 5. Any member may propose new business to the Board of Directors to be brought before the membership for discussion and voting.

Article X Publications

The publications of the corporation shall include an official scholarly journal to be published quarterly. The publications are the responsibility of the editor and publisher and any staff appointed by them.

Article XI Regional Chapters

The corporation will encourage and assist the formation of regional chapters for the purposes of more frequent meetings of members, more widely varied activities of the corporation between annual meetings, and to foster and encourage musical performances by the members.

Article XII
Amendments

These By-Laws of the corporation may be altered, amended or repealed and new By-Laws may be adopted by the Board of Directors or by a majority of the members present and voting at a general meeting of the corporation.
